The Best of BC – without the Price Tag

If you desire a friendly, supportive workplace along with short commutes, amazing scenery and outdoor living at its best, then you owe it to yourself to check out the opportunities we have available in beautiful Northern British Columbia.

Social Worker
Part Time, Vanderhoof, BC

This position will cover Vanderhoof 2 days a week and 1 day each in Fort St. James and Fraser Lake.

In accordance with Northern Health’s vision of an idealized system of services built on a foundation of Primary Care where people and their families receive primary care services in Primary Care Homes supported by interprofessional teams; the Primary Care Social Worker functions as a member of the interprofessional team and applies best practice to provide comprehensive assessment, care planning and intervention for people and their families. Working collaboratively with other health care providers and the interprofessional team, the Social Worker provides direct psychosocial care, counselling and group work, system navigation and advocacy, education and linkage to relevant specialized or community resources while facilitating client self-management. The Social Worker is responsible for providing social work services to maintain or improve the health and functioning of persons, families and communities.

To be successful in this position you will have a Bachelor’s Degree in Social Work from an accredited university, two years recent related experience in a healthcare, or a combination of related education, training and experience, current registration with the British Columbia College of Social Workers and a current valid BC driver’s license.
