

THE KNOWLEDGE EXCHANGE

A PARTNERSHIP-IN-ACTION PODCAST

JOIN US IN SEASON TWO!

The Knowledge Exchange highlights inspiring community-academia partnerships and is looking for guests to feature on our upcoming season! Each episode will feature a BC-based scholar or graduate student in a social or allied health discipline and their community partners for a conversation about their projects and the impacts of their knowledge exchange and mobilization practices.

OUR AIMS

To highlight the successes, lessons learned, and research impacts of community-based research in British Columbia

To better understand the practice of community engagement and knowledge exchange and mobilization in social work and the allied health professions

THE LOGISTICS

Recording: Anytime between June - Dec 2025

Time Commitment: 60 minutes (+ commute)

In-Person Recordings

UBC Studios located on the UBC-Vancouver campus OR the Inspiration Labs at the Vancouver Public Library (Downtown Vancouver)

Virtual Recordings

Zoom

Guests can expect to answer conversation prompts on the following:

- Introductions for yourselves and the partnership
- Your work/project(s) and collaborations (purpose and aims, relationship-building, influence and impact)
- Reflections (challenges and lessons)
- Concluding remarks

Contact: Dr. Barbara Lee

Email: b.lee@ubc.ca

School of Social Work
THE UNIVERSITY OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

blogs.ubc.ca/swkx

Click below to discover Season 1!

Spotify

Apple Podcasts

