

PERSPECTIVES BIBLIOGRAPHY 2011

SEPTEMBER 2011

vol. 33 no.3

MUST I UN-FRIEND FACEBOOK?

MAJOR ARTICLES

- Must I Un-friend Facebook?
- Collective Ethics as a Path to Resisting “Burnout” in Counselling
- Herman Goes to Africa
- Parenting with a Mental Illness
- Mother’s Reactional Needs in Child Protection
- Reflective Journal Writing for Social Worker Well-Being
- Parkinson’s Disease
- Reflections on Being the Registrar
- From Social Worker to Bean Counter
- The UNBC Community Care Centre
- CASW: Alive and Well!

MAY 2011

vol. 33 no.2

PUTTING CHILDREN AT THE CENTRE OF THE CIRCLE

MAJOR ARTICLES

- Putting Children at the Centre of the Circle
- Transforming Service Delivery to our Squamish Children and Families
- Qui:qwelstom Justice
- Respect, Trust and Inclusion
- Civil Rights: What Are They and Why They Matter
- Towards Aboriginal-Focused Hospice Palliative Care in Rural and Remote British Columbia
- Building Cultural Competency into the Child Protection System
- Why Belong to BCASW?

January 2011

vol. 33 no.1

SELF-CARE: AN ETHICAL IMPERATIVE

MAJOR ARTICLES

- Self-Care for Social Workers
- Dialogue Circles
- Rights 2 Success (R2S)
- Vicarious Traumatization: from Awareness to Response
- Twenty Questions for BC Politicians on Eliminating Poverty
- Autumn Reflections
- Why Buy Professional Liability Insurance?
- Partnerships in Social Work Education