

Vancouver Basic Training in EMDR

The British Columbia School of Professional Psychology is offering Basic Training in Eye Movement Desensitization and Reprocessing (EMDR). Participants learn to use EMDR appropriately and effectively in a variety of applications. Such use is based on understanding the theoretical basis of EMDR, safety issues, integration with a treatment plan, and supervised practice.

The training will be provided by Marshall Wilensky, Ph.D., R.Psych., EMDRIA Approved Instructor. Dr. Wilensky specializes in the treatment of trauma. He has trained over 2000 clinicians and has 15,000 hours of experience with EMDR.

Eligibility: Minimum of Masters level training in a mental health discipline and registration with a professional organization with a code of ethics, or be a graduate student in a supervised practicum or internship.

Format: Lecture, discussion, demonstration, video - 20 hours
